

KAMCHATKA HELISKIING

370,000 KM² OF POSSIBILITIES

We'll explore an exceptional and extraordinary area called the Ring of Fire, on Siberia's western end between the Pacific Ocean and the Sea of Okhotsk.

WORLD HERITAGE

Accessible only since 1992, this end-of-the-world region of unusual, unspoiled nature was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1996.

SPECTACULAR LANDSCAPE

A wild, unique universe with infinite possibilities, surrounded by abundant snow and diverse wildlife, promising unforgettable, amazing moments.